FRIDAY, AUGUST 11, 1911.

NO MORE "LAME DUCKS."

Senator Borah has presented his bill providing that no person who has been a member of Congress shall be eligible to appointment to any federal office within two years after he retires from legislative life. Such a law would annihilate the "lame duck" brigade, but it is very probable that the lame ducks will be able to flap their wings sufficiently to defeat the bill.

:O:

BERGER'S OLD-AGE PENSION BILL.

Every person in the United States 60 years of age or older who has been a citizen 16 years, who has an income of less than $6 a week and who has not been convicted of a felony, would be put on the pension roll of the United States if Congress passed a bill introduced last week by Representative Berger of Wisconsin, who constitutes the socialist party in the House. The bill would give pensions of $1 to $4 a week. We wonder what Jawn D. would do with his $4. Probably make another million with it.

:O:

PUBLIC-SPIRITED WOMEN.

Those women who worked so industriously the other day cleaning up the Park are the right kind. It was a mighty hot day and one that made everyone—especially mankind—want to keep as quiet as possible. When you come right down to it, the last analysis will always show that women—or a woman—are at the bottom of everything. Those women are to be congratulated on their public spirit and thanked for their efforts in a good cause.

:O:

MORE MONEY NEEDED TO RAISE THE MAINE.

Congress will be asked soon by the war department to appropriate $250,000 more to complete the work of raising the battleship Maine in Havana harbor. This will make a total expenditure of $900,000, and so far nothing very important has developed. Opinion seems to be pretty evenly divided on the question of whether the Maine was sunk from the outside or from an explosion on the inside. Still it has given the War Department something to occupy its time and perhaps that is all that could be asked. But that $900,000 would have gone quite a respectable distance for a new and modern warship.

:O:

A NOVEL CAMPAIGN.

The Star, Washington's evening newspaper, has offered $100 in prizes for a two weeks' fly-killing contest among the children of the city. The first prize is $25, the second $20, the third $15 and so on down to $1. The main conditions are as follows:

Entrants must be children under 16 years of age. Flies must be delivered, after being killed, between the hours of 10 and 11 a. m. at any one of the following six stations of the associated charities: Georgetown, Central, Southwest, Northwest, Southeast and Northern. The stations will not be open Sunday, July 30, and no flies will be received on that day.

Specially made boxes in which the flies must be delivered have been provided free of cost by the George P. Killian manufacturing company of 452 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, and can be had upon application at any of the above-named stations.

The names, ages and addresses of the contestants must be carefully written on the boxes.

The flies will be collected daily and taken to the District building, where they will be counted under the supervision of Dr. Arthur L. Murray of the health department.

A separate card for each contestant will be kept on file at the health department, which will show the daily progress made in the campaign.

Boys generally like to kill flies, and a "swatting" contest for money cannot fail to arouse their sporting instincts. But, in this case, the public had already been so well educated concerning the danger to public health in the housefly pest that the girls were no less energetic than the boys in becoming exterminators. The operations began last week, Monday. By Thursday night astonishing results began to appear. The leading youngster was officially credited with 52,200 dead flies. His nearest competitor, a 12-year-old girl, was credited with 39,600. The total of the six highest contestants was 199,600. The Star, in Friday's issue, printed a picture of a big wagon being loaded with boxes of dead flies collected at one of the branch fly stations. On the morning of the fifth day, the rush for fly boxes was so great that the manufacturers could not meet the demand. It was clear that the younger generation had risen to the occasion and that, if the thing could be done in two weeks, they would make Washington a flyless city.

The Star has done a good work and one which will make Washington a healthier city.

BEACH LAKE.

(Special to The Citizen.)

BEACH LAKE, Pa., August 10.—The W. C. T. U. held a gospel temperance meeting last Sunday evening in the M. E. church. Mrs. J. P. Budd took charge of the meeting, she being secretary of the Union. It was a very entertaining and edifying meeting. Mrs. Neal, president of the Union, read for the scriptures lesson the two commandments after which she dwelt for some time on the importance of keeping them. Mrs. C. VanGorder gave a short address, but it was very good, and Dr. Hamilton of Brooklyn followed with a two-hour speech. A well-drilled choir sang some very choice selections. Mr. and Mrs. Seymour sang a duet, the title of which was the "Licensed Saloon." A solo sang by Mr. Barnes was very good.

Charlotte Wood was shot in the arm by one of the boarders. Dr. Parcells was hastily summoned and dressed the wound which is not causing her much discomfort. It was a very close call.

Mr. Ives is doing a thriving business in his bowling alley and dance hall. Oakley Henshaw plays the violin in the hall three nights of the week and Laura Ham the piano every night.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hawkins and daughter, Lactia, of Honesdale, slip out in their auto and spend a few hours at the lake quite frequently.

Jessie Davey is visiting friends at this place.

Mrs. Babcock, Peckville, has again returned to Camp Comfort where she spends some time every summer.

Rev. Tuthill and family spent a few days here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunn have been entertaining the former's brother and Mrs. Frank Dunn and two sons.

Miss Gertrude Lee is spending some weeks at the Dunn home.

Elbert Best, one of the Beach Lake boys, but now of Boulder Col., took to himself a partner for life July 29, and he is now exploring the Pacific coast. He will spend part of his honeymoon with his cousin, Mrs. Dressel (nee Grace Budd) at San Diego, Cal.

George Dexter, Ateo, who has been applying the paint brush on J. P. Budd's new cottage, has certainly done a good job on it.

Bessie Decker will teach the village school this year.

TYLER HILL.

(Special to The Citizen.)

TYLER HILL, Pa., August 10.—We had a nice little shower last night but it seems to have warmed the air rather than cooled it.

Mr. and Mrs. K. P. Johnston and Mr. and Mrs. George Drake attended the funeral services of Howard Parks, late of Newberg, N. Y., which were held at White Lake on Tuesday of this week. Mr. Johnston and Mrs. Drake are cousins of the deceased.

Romaine Boucher, Yonkers, N. Y., is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Ella Boucher.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Rutledge, West Damascus, visited relatives at this place the first of the week.

Paul Griffith is visiting his sister, Mrs. Forrest Taylor, Torrey, this week.

We are glad to see Prof. Harry H. Petrick again in this vicinity. Mr. Petrick has been taking a course in agriculture at State College this summer. He will superintend the Damascus High school another year to the satisfaction of everybody.

John Griffith, Williamsport, is spending a short vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Griffith, Tyler Hill.

A number from this place attended the Grange picnic at Calkins last Thursday and heard and shook hands with the numerous candidates for public office who were there.

"Bob" Doran's speech, however, eclipsed all the rest in the estimation of most of his hearers.

The Fair held on R. T. Oliver's lawn on Tuesday evening, Aug. 1, was a complete success. The amount taken in was about $112 which is to be applied on the chapel fund.

Mrs. Benjamin Dittrich favored the people present with four recitations which showed her remarkable ability as an elocutionist.

DREHER.

(Special to The Citizen.)

DREHER, Pa., August 10.—We were in error in saying the Newfoundland creamery paid 18 cents for June butter. It should have been 21 cents.

Haying and rye harvest is about completed for this year and a few fields of oats have been cut. Corn is looking real good and we feel safe in saying that on an average all the crops are about with last year's record. Potatoes are in doubt.

The crop of city people in this locality is better each year and about what we need to boom the town is more room for city boarders.

J. B. Krantz is entertaining ten city guests. E. D. Dunning, proprietor of the Sterling House in South Sterling has twenty-four city guests.

G. S. Brown and family, Easton, are guests of his mother, Mrs. Jane Brown.

Misses Minnie and Edna Tonsen and May Clembeck, Belleville, and Hilda Billebeck, New York city, are spending their vacation with Alice Cross.

Mrs. Clara Searle, Moosic, is visiting her sister, Alice Cross.

Mrs. Anna Beemer and daughter, Ruth, Binghamton, N. Y., are guests of J. W. Kerr and family.

Mrs. James Burke and son, Ernest Burke, Buffalo, N. Y., are visiting Mrs. Angeline Burke. Mrs. Burke is a sufferer from tuberculosis and is in quite a serious condition.

Anthony P. MacDonough, Dunmore, is stopping at H. B. Smith's and has horses and wagons to sell or trade.

A P. O. S. of A. camp will be instituted in the Grange Hall near Greentown postoffice, Pike county, soon, with a membership of 44. A new hall for Grange and P. O. S. of A. is one of the probabilities for Greentown.

J. H. Green has another automobile.

Rural free delivery route No. 1 in Dreher will be ready for business on September 1. It will start from Angels postoffice upon the arrival of the mail from Gouldsboro about 2 p. m. and will be an afternoon delivery. The route is about 13 miles in length and about 60 patrons will be served with mail.

The annual Williams reunion will be held on August 26, at the residence of Mrs. T. S. Osborn, South Sterling.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Ingalls and family, Scranton, spent last week at the residence of Mrs. Jane Brown.

H. R. Megargel has purchased the Jake Waltz saw mill and will move it on the recently-purchased Yates lumber tract in Sterling.

WEST DAMASCUS.

(Special to The Citizen.)

WEST DAMASCUS, Pa., August 10.—Misses Josephine and Elizabeth Gillis, New York, are spending their vacation at the home of their parents, John S. Gillis.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. F. Welsh and brother, Horton Welsh, and Miss Nellie Gillis spent a day at Lake Huntington recently.

Vernon Acker attended the dance held at Burke's platform Wednesday evening.

Mattie E. Gager has returned from spending three weeks in New York city visiting relatives.

Miss Florence and Laverne Goodnough are spending their vacation at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Goodnough.

Miss Laverne Goodnough made a trip to East Stroudsburg on Wednesday and returned on Friday. She expects to accept a position at this place the coming winter.

Mrs. James Blair and Mrs. Fred Baldwin and son, Melbourne, also Miss Anna Mae Gillis attended the Grange picnic held in Burcher's grove, August 8.

Mrs. James Blair and Mrs. Alice Goodnough spent Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. Knapp of Rileyville.

P. E. Monington and mother, also her daughter, Mrs. Y. Liholt, Calkins, and son, Loren, spent Sunday at James Blair's.

BETHANY.

(Special to The Citizen.)

BETHANY, Pa., August 9.—Miss Marjorie Hauser will spend several weeks with relatives at their summer homes near New York.

Miss Eva Harmer, Hawley, came Wednesday to visit Miss Ella Gamwell.

Alice Ward returned to Beach Lake Saturday, called home by her mother's illness. Mrs. Ward is improving.

Miss Ida Thomas, Peckville, is visiting her friend, Mrs. Henry A. Bennett.

I. J. Many spent Sunday with his

THE AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHER

Chapter five of Frederick Haskins' article on Color Photography.

The color photographers have devised an instrument known as the sensitometer, by the use of which they are able to tell exactly what sort of ray-filter should be used to photograph a given object in its natural color. This sensitometer consists of a series of superimposed colored glasses. By holding these to the light it is possible for the practiced eye to select such screens as will keep out all rays other than the ones it is desired to catch in the photograph.

A leading French photographer has devised a method for making positives out of negatives. It will be recalled that in a photographic negative dark spots appear where light ones are intended to appear in the finished photograph, and that the negative is transparent where the black is to appear in the photograph.

The Paris photographer subjects the negative to the ordinary treatment, and then closes it into another bath, whereby the deposited silver which makes up the shading of the negative is eaten away and a film of silver salt is placed by the same process in those parts of the negative which formerly were partially or wholly transparent. In this way he is able to convert his negative into a photograph, without the interposition of photographic paper. By placing the transformed negative in a certain position it makes the image appear to the eye in the natural colors of the object.

Picnics and the fair will fill in the rest of the month in the way of attractions.

Charles W. Sutton's condition was very serious last week.

CLINTON.

(Special to The Citizen.)

CLINTON, Pa., August 10.—Today the remains of Mrs. Frederick Ullman, Buffalo, N. Y., were interred in the Clinton cemetery in the plot besides those of her parents.

Before her marriage she was Florence, daughter of Warren Davidson. Besides her husband she leaves one son William; one brother, John Davidson, Sacramento, Cal., who came on to the funeral.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. George Curran buried their infant son.

August 1 Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Singer welcomed their daughter, Mary.

About ten days ago Norville, the seven-year-old daughter of Arthur Curtis, fell from a tree and fractured both bones above her ankle, besides receiving severe bruises and cuts, since which she has been in severe pain from the bruises and the shock. The distance she fell was about twelve feet.

The Ladies' Aid met in the church dining rooms yesterday for dinner.

STEENE.

(Special to The Citizen.)

STEENE, Pa., August 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Harris Short, Mr. and Mrs. James Kagar, Scranton, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chapman, Wilkes-Barre, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Short here at Steene.

Miss Cora Miller, Farview, will teach the Steene school the coming season, commencing Sept. 11.

Mrs. Winfield Mumford visited friends at Carbondale Friday and Saturday.

OUR BOYS

ONE OF THEM

With The Boy Scouts.

The Boy Scouts of America have tripled in number in the last eight months. There are now 4,500 scout masters registered with the national organization. On January 1, there were only 1,400. These facts alone show that there are three times as many troops of scouts under the direction of the leaders of the Boy Scouts of America as there were in the beginning of the year. While it is hard to figure on the number of boys, yet it is quite probable that the Boy Scouts alone number three times as many as at the beginning of the year.

This remarkable growth is due to many reasons. First, boys in every village, town and city throughout the country, have read of the principles of the scout movement and have appreciated how much more fun they can have under a good trainer or Scout Master who takes them into the woods and teaches them various useful things for play and work. Secondly, many young men, learning of the principles of the scout movement have become enthusiastic workers and have made efforts to organize troops because they are fond of the activities outlined in the scout manual. Thirdly, the general interest in the scout organization has spread over the country gradually and persistently in the last year and a half, and there are more Boy Scouts in America to-day than there are in any country in the world.

Since the meeting of the National Council at the White House early in February, greater interest has been aroused in the movement because new badges have been turned out for the boys, a new manual has been issued and many things have been done to appeal directly to the American boys.

Business and professional men also have taken increased interest in the work and have formed local councils in various cities and towns to supervise the scout activities in their localities. The scout organization has become so strong in several cities that secretaries have been employed to handle the great amount of detail.

The leaders of the Boy Scouts regard their growth not as temporal but as due to the inherent strength and appeal of the Scout principles. They feel sure that the organization which has been approved by the members of different religious and secular organizations dealing with boys' work is a thoroughly permanent institution in the life of the country.

THE SUMMER BOARDER

PROFIT IN SUMMER BOARDERS.

There is good money in taking summer boarders. Wayne county is especially adapted to taking city guests, owing to its natural resources. One, and it might be termed the chief attraction for the summer visitor, is the lake. It is here that the guests enjoy themselves—bathing in its waters, boating, gathering berries and fishing. The farm land that has a lake or pond upon it can be enhanced in value many times. The natural scenery cannot be surpassed.

The outlay preparatory to taking guests is not great. The improvements can be made at different seasons. With the proceeds or profits of the first or second year additional sleeping room can be made by building on to your present home. Another year the house could be painted and the approach to your home possibly made more attractive. If you have a lake on your premises a section of the underbrush could be cut along one side of it, making a lover's lane. Boards could be nailed on cleats between trees for seats and a swing or two might be hung beneath a spreading tree nearby, making the surroundings particularly attractive.
